An ther excuse for withdrawal from the People's Press is to be able to substitute a ger foreign paper. A foreign paper is good ts place, but it can never be a substitute a country paper. Vermont has its own ews, its own business, its own condidates ne peculiar polities, and its own legislature attend to. For all these purposes the peode want a home paper. That most valuable all foreign papers, the Tribune, which has State of New York, and the whole Uniou is field of labor, could have been of very rial benefit during the last severe contest this State. Besides, the circulation of a greign paper must be comparatively limited, the a country paper in active and judicious nd: will reach every hamlet and district in county. This of all things in a political ner is desirable. What if, as we hear often red, "I sm and over shall be a whig," plat good to yourself or the country, if you ere nobody to join you. If you would have e country prosper you must strive to make whigs. But you need not go or make cches yourself. Sustain a newspaper which will do it for you, and which, while n are regaling yourself with the perusal of Tribune or Express, is pleading for the od cause in every house and log cabin all ong our vallies and on our mountain tops. n't then throw aside the People's Press for

And again: We wish our subcribers rould not complain that our paper is too puch occupied by advertisements. If we ad no other resource but the avails of our subscription list we should be obliged to go nto Bankruptcy if the law should so long soatinue in 6 months, No county paper unes sustained by voluntary donation can we without advertisments. But we have already dwelt too long upon ourselves. All ne ask is half the patronageexerted by loco. focus in sustaining their papers if no larger than a cabbage leaf.

JOHN C. COLT.

The New York papers are filled with various articles upon this painful case. Nevr perhaps has a murder incited more feeling in the public mind than this. It has chiefly sprung from the extraordinaryefforts made to avert the sentence of the law-Different tribunals have been applied to for writs of error, and failing in this, the executive has been arged by a most pressing application of the friends and couusel of the convict, and even by disinterested members of the bar for a pardon. We annot but rejoice that these desperate efforts to save the life of a malefactor in a case of the most flagrant enormity and cruelty to the unfortunate victim of his malice, has proved unavailing. The firmness of Gov. Seward in maintaining the supremacy of the law, irrespective of persons has won him the applause ofall,: even his most implacable political enemies. For the prevention of crime nothing is so imperfant as the certain and speedy execution of the law upon the guilty offender.

There has been a statement in some raper that attempts have been made upon the integrity of the keepers, to enable the criminal to escape in the garb of his misires. The overture was disclosed and its object averted. In several states of the Union attempts have been made to abolish for President. capital punishment altogether. But in none have they even partially succeded except in Vermont. At a moment when a whole newspaper would hardly be sufficient to detail the accounts of murders now in tirculation, the manner in which the laws have been robbed of their efficiency in the prevention of capital offences, must be latacated by every wholesome citizen who reards his own or the safety of communi-

THE BAY STATE .- The political complexion of Massachusetts, was determined yesterdy, Nov. 28th. There are 100 towns n the State which have not as yet chosen representatives, and it is confidently believof they will choose a sufficient majority of whigs to secure the joint ballot. As it now stands there is a loco majority of 13 a 14 the lower house. The locas think that means of the abolitionists who like silly deus always suffer themselves to be used by them, they shall prevent elections in aout forty whig towns. Time will deter-

THE STATE ELECTION. The official vote of all the counties in the State but 13 give the following result:

Seward in 1840, 181,306 Bradish in 1842, 154.907 Bouck " 173,921

Thus, while in the counties enumerated Bouck has this year beaten Bradish by a majority of 19,014 votes, he has himself received 7,385 votes less than he received in 1840; the vote for Mr Bradish being this year, in the same counties 27,713 votes less a quarrel was known to have existed be-

A COMPARISON.

It is well, now and then, and puarticular. y in a time of seeming adversity, to look at the past, and by seeing how apparent weakness has been followed by strength, derive support and confidence for the future. For this purpose we copy the following comparison between the general condition of the Whig party in 1838, and the position in which it now stands, in order to show, from the events of 1840, that the whigs are not without rational grounds for the expectations they cherish for 1843. We copy from the U. S. (Phila.) Gazette.

With reference to the elections of 1844, the Whigs occupy the same relation, in regard to time, which they did in 1838, with eference to the Presidential election in 1840. And with the exception of the distracted state of the Locofoco party, in refrence to their Presidential candidate, the ircumstances, to almost every thing else, s nearly the same.

In 1838, the State of Pennsylvania elected Governor Porter by a majority of 5496 And yet in 1840, Pennsylvania cast her electoral vote against the Locofoco candidate for Presidency.

In 1838, Delaware elected Mr. Robinson (Locofoco) her delegate in Congress, by a uniority of 50. And yet in 1840. Delaware elected Anti-Lecefoco electors by a majority of more than a thousand. Georgia, in 1838, elected McDonald

(Locofoco) for Governor, by a majority of But in 1840, Georgia gave a good round

Ohio, in the year 1838, gave to Shannon (Locofoco) for Governor, a majority of 729. Yet in 1840, Ohio gave the Anti-Locofoce electorial ticket a neat little majority of liventy-three thousand. Maryland, in 1838, gave to Grayson, the Locofoco candidate for Governor, a major-ity of 259.

Yet in 1840, this same Maryland gave a majority for the Anti Locofoco electorial ticket of 4776.

In 1839, the State of Massachusetts elected Marcus Morton, the Locofoco candidate for Governor, by a majority of one.

to the Anti-Locofoco electoral ticket a ma- by the ority of 20,930. In 1838, New Jersey returned to Congress a Locofoco delegation, claiming a majority of 66. This claim was not allowed, but the Whig real majority was less than that.

And yet in 1840 New Jersey gave the the Waltons in matter typography and Whig electoral ticket a majority of 2317. Maine, in the year 1838, gave to Fair-field the Locofoco candidate for Governor, a majority of 3328.

But in 1840, Maine gave a majarity for the Whig electoral ticket of 411, Michigan, in 1838, elected Stevens T. Mason, the Locofoco candidate for Governor, and the rest of the Locofoco State tick-Yet Michigan, in 1840, gave for the Whig electoral tickel a majority of 1802. There was no election in Tennessee, in 1838 But in 1837, the Locos carried their ticket by 18,800; and in 1839. they carried Polk (Locofoco) by a majority of 3000. Yet in 1840, the Whigs elected their electorial ticket by a majority of 12,102.

We take no notice of those States which west for the Whigs in 1838, and also at the Presidential election, in 1840, such as North Carolina, Indiania, Kentucky, Louisiana, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and New York, though every one of these States gave a majority for the Whig electorial ticket, in 1840, vastly superior to that which they gave for State officers in 1838; & that in. crease of majority goes to strengthen the confidence of the Whigs, that in 1844, the same results will be found. It is due to the editor of the Pennsylvanian to say, that the philosophy and patience with which he credits us, at the present continuance of one, a still more apt ble example in 1840-an example which $2 50 a 3 00 we are sure he will again give in 1844.

Tyler to an unfaithful husband, who has long been false to his wife (Loco. Focoism) and now comes back to her professing penitence, but bringing several of his vi-lest paramours (i. e. Webster, Spencer & Co.) with him. The Globe paints all this too forcibly for our columns, remarks that the "respectability" of the family must suffer from these new inmates, and concludes :

"In our opinion, of the Democracy can manage its affairs very well without the aid of any of the renouncing Coons, who have quarreled with, and been driven away from their fraternity. If they now get shelter from those to whom they have mischief in their power, they must be content with the hospitality the house may afford to such guests, and not expect that its keeping will be entrusted to them."

HORRID FRATRICIDE.-The New Haven Palladium of the 8th notices a horrible affair which occurred in Cansan the week before. A man named Rockwell at about midnight went out to relieve a hired man who was attending his burning limekiln .--The next morning Mr. R. was found dead, buried beneath bricks of the chimney which had fallen down. LOTION, LOTION.

IGHLY esteemed for curing all Ecopples on the Face, Neck or Hands, and effectually caning the complexion and removing all diseases of the skin.

Nothing contributes as much to our general success in life, as an engaging first appearance.
The Lotton is admired as a most fragrant, mild, safe wash, and greatly extremed for its virtues in cleansing, softening and purifying the shire of the same of t ogans and becomes a fruitful source of direase; in some people Dyspepsia in others. Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Measles, Wheeping Cough, Jathus, Gout, Hypothondria, Epilepsy, Low Spirits, Chronic Diarthie, Piles, Pulmonary Con-Spirits, Cirrouis Diarrhoe, Piles, Pulmonary Con-simition, Scroffulous, Sick Headache, Eruption of the Skin, Salt Rhuem, St. Anthony's Fire, Yallow and Billous Fevers, Fever and Ague, Sear let Rosh, Hearthurn, Costiveness, Fernale Weak-ness, Jaundice, Intermittent and Remittant Fev-ers, Erysipelas, Scald Head, Humars, and all Bil-lious composints. These different complaints are each, one and about the same, followed by a train-of others, and diversed the property for Vermont District.

In Bankruptcy. Notice to show cause against our companies. These different complaints are polition of Ira Stewart, that Aaton Spaulding of Greenfield in the county of Frankin and of others, equally as detrimental, and perhaps faste of Massachusetts, and Andrew Rutherfind talls human fife. Like has legislation and bankrupted by others equally injurious to tallo human life. Like use legislated, the rail zer must be supported by others equally injurious to prosperity of the State. A perfectly healthy begin is like a well tuned instrument, every string of which chrates in unison, and the least injury to any one throws it into disorder.

Let any one take the trouble to examine and study the organization of his own system, and if he never did before, he will realize the feelings of the Prolimist when he sung, "I am fearfully and won-critily mane!"
